WHAT TO PREPARE

Install the latest R and R Studio Version

Install R package citr for citations

Install R package papaja to write reproducible manscripts in APA style

Install MiKTeX

- download MiXTex (the Net Installer, not the Basic Installer!): https://miktex.org/
- see tutorial for installation (https://miktex.org/howto/install-miktex)
- RESTART your computer after installing MiXTeX

Install Zotero

Install Better Bib(La)TeX Plugin for Zotero (read the following instructions carefully -> the Plugin has to be installed within Zotero!):

- download BibTeX: https://retorque.re/zotero-better-bibtex
- if you use Firefox, make sure to right-click and save the XPI file, not just clicking it!!
- open Zotero
- in the main menu go to Tools > Add-ons
- select 'Extensions'
- click on the gear in the top-right corner and choose 'Install Add-on From File…'
- choose .xpi that you've just downloaded, click 'Install'
- restart Zotero

First steps in Zotero to provide some literature for the citation examples in the workshop:

- create a library for the project
- add literature to Zotero
- change the citation key to which you want to refer to in R Markdown (for example lastnameyear, e.g. lonsdorf2019
